RECORDED INTERVIEW OF
LYNN YEVROVICH
BY
DETECTIVE ATWOOD
LIEUTENANT McCALL
(Work Product)

23 JANUARY 6, 2016
24 TRANSCRIBED FROM RECORDING BY:
25 CHERYL J. HAMMER, RPR, CCR 2512

1 you angry?

2 MS. YEVROVICH: I looked how big the
3 fire, I was scared.

4 DETECTIVE ATWOOD: No, I mean, in
5 between the time after you guys got done arguing and
6 that fire started.

7 MS. YEVROVICH: I was trying to relax
8 watching TV. It was just that simple.

9 DETECTIVE ATWOOD: You were just
10 chilling out?

11 MS. YEVROVICH: Yeah, absolutely.
12 Just chilling watching TV, trying to relax. If I had
13 been more relaxed, I might have gone to bed and then I
14 wouldn't be here right now. I would have died in the 15 fire. So it was just luck.

16 I was sitting out there watching
17 television, when I -- I smelled something, and it
18 wasn't cigarette smoke, but it was smoke. And I -- I
19 got out of the chair quickly and I went, ran over
20 there, and that's when I saw the white smoke kind of 21 billowing out from the crevice like underneath the 22 door.

23 Wherever there was, you know, a crack
24 that it could come out it was billowing out and it was 25 bad by then. So I threw the door open and by then the
